"It's a good idea to walk as much as you can, 5 or 10 miles a day if you can. I walk about 5 a day in good weather."

Perhaps to the surprise of New Frontiersmen, who didn't say these things, people have been walking for healthful exercise for years.

Spokesman for the "Old Cameron," formerly is Judge O. D. Graham, former 23rd District judge of 615 E. Seventh St. He walks that 5 miles a day if the weather is good. It used to be 10, he says.

103 - 103 - 113

It has become popular to take 50 - mile hikes, either individually or collectively, carrying nothing at all but one's own weight, a walking stick as does Judge Graham or dribbling a basketball.

David Brinkley the other night on TV told how one Marine officer did it. Chastized because he walked the regulation 30 miles in one day, the Marine officer, who goes nameless, went by the book. He walked 40 miles the first day and measured out the remaining mile in the next two. It was regulation.

103 - 103 - 103

Judge Graham follows regulations, primarily the advice of doctors who told him a number of years ago that walking was good for his health.

That's when he started his 10-mile strides to become a familiar figure around his East Cameron residential area. The passing years pared the distance to 5, his daily dosage taken usually once morning, once near evening.

"A neighbor told me the other day that I was right in style," Judge Graham told 103. He might have said he didn't know styles had changed.

This is an arresting development. Mothers of new born babies walk home only a day or two after giving birth; surgery patients are ambulatory a relatively short time after the stitches are in place.

Everybody is starting to walk, even though there are 60 million autos on the streets and highways and reducing potions sell at a register - jangling rate.

103 - 103 - 103

Anyway, everyone is on the move again, striding off confidently to new health, hurrying to catch up with septuagenarians like Judge Graham who has listened to his doctor's advice and who, hale and hearty, is several thousand miles ahead of us.

Travel Map Is

Ready For '63

Tourists, Texans

AUSTIN — The strikingly colorful 1963 edition of the Official Highway Travel Map of Texas is ready for the asking.

Designed to show Texan and tourist alike how to discover the Lone Star State's vacation "fun-tier," the Texas Highway Department publication is free to the public. Copies may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, Travel Division, Austin.

It is also available at the 25 highway district offices and eight Tourist Bureaus operated by the department. County tax offices have special cards for ordering copies of the map.

Within the year, 750,000 or more of the free maps depicting Texas delights in vivid full-color photographs will find their way to glove compartments all over the United States — and the world.

Kept to the swelling Texas tourist industry — up 14 per cent in visitor volume last year — the new travel map urges users to "Discover Texas — Today's Fun-Tier." The map and its "fun-tier" theme are links in a promotional package of publications and other materials aimed at enhancing the image of Texas as a vacation paradise.

Earle Appeals For Drainage Aid

City Engineer J. B. Earle Tuesday appealed to the City Council and the people of Cameron to help keep the city drainage system in proper working order.

In a letter to the Mayor and City Council he asked citizens:

"1. Not to pile or burn leaves, limbs or debris in the drain ditches.

"2. Help us keep the drain ditches clean.

"3. Stop fill up or pulling rocks or other material in ditches.

"4. Since all open ditches have some type of culvert or pipe at some place, leaves, limbs and debris cause trouble by stopping, up retarding runoff and flooding areas. This causes complaints and we have to spend unnecessary money correcting the trouble.

"5. There are two (2) motives for this condition. Not thinking it will cause any trouble and that it is a fast way of getting it moved by the city."

Earle said that his department is trying every way possible to keep up its regular trash schedule.

He said that he was appealing to the Council and the citizens to help keep the drain free because it creates problems that are costing the city money and time.

These must be removed to keep the city free of excess water during the seasonal rainfall.

"I can see that our drainage problem has greatly improved but we need the cooperation of every citizen of Cameron and I know that you members of the Council will do your part in making Cameron a better place in which to live," Earle concluded.

The award was donated in 1961 by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCullin to the Chamber of Commerce and the Business and Professional Women's Club. Each year the secret committee meets and selects a recipient from nominations received from clubs, organizations and individuals.

Each year the presentation is made to the outstanding citizen of the community.

Past recipients of the award have been E. A. Perrin, John Solomon, Mrs. Mark C. Magers, Jimmy Asher, Lester Williams, Ben H. Magnus, Mrs. Dana Monroe, Richard Moseley, Francis Cox, Dr. S. H. Richardson and Judge Don G. Humble.

Nomination blanks for this award may be secured at the chamber office. Deadline for nominations is March 4.

38,000 Tons

Alcoa's Asphalt

For Highways

A Highway District 17 contract for 38,000 tons of asphalt paving has resulted in the first breakthrough for the use of Rockdale Slag Aggregate for state highway paving. The slag is a by-product of burning lignite to generate electric power at Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works.

An asphalt hot mix plant has been located on the slag pile adjacent to the Rockdale Works to produce the paving material. The plant is owned and operated by Young Brothers, Inc. of Waco, the contractor for the 38,000-ton job.

According to Young Brothers, 22,000 tons of hot mix will be produced on the plant site. The equipment will be moved to another location to finish the 38,000-ton contract, with slag aggregate being shipped to the hot mix plant from Rockdale. When the work is done, Young Brothers expects to again locate the hot mix plant in Rockdale.

Slag aggregate has long been considered a potentially good highway paving material. Several years ago a test strip of hot mix using Rockdale Slag Aggregate was laid down on Highway 6 near Bryan. That paving has outlasted two resurfacing jobs of conventional paving materials next to the test strip.

FUMES FROM CAMP STOVE

Oil heating stoves sure can raise a stink in close quarters such as a small tent or cabin.

Eliminate these noxious fumes by putting two or three oranges on top of the heater. If the stove is of the round type, tie oranges to its sides with wire.

County Agents Notes...

Store Pecan Budwood Now

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Those interested in budding and grafting pecans should store budwood now. Select wood from recommended varieties such as Desirable, Success and other dependable producers. Recommended new USDA varieties for this area are Choctaw and Barton.

Select budwood from last years growth with well developed buds. Cut the wood to be stored in convenient lengths and place in a box containing wet sphagnum moss to hold the moisture and keep the budwood from drying out. Place in cold storage temperature ranging from 34 to 40 degrees.

Budding and grafting information is available at the county extension office.

PLASTIC MULCH NEW TREND

Mulching vegetables with black polyethylene plastic film is a proven practice. Research results as well as grower use in a number of states show what mulching of certain vegetables with plastic film promotes early production, increases yield and improved quality of the final product.

Lesser amounts of fertilizer are used and the irrigation water required is reduced in most cases by 50 per cent.

Contributing factors to greatly improved plant growth and productivity are the elimination of leaching of fertilizer, more uniform moisture condition, uniform soil temperatures, elimination of competition from weeds and perhaps most importantly the elimination of cultivation which in many cases interferes with plant growth through the destruction of feeding roots.

Billy Gene and Bill Whitaker plan to conduct a demonstration using plastic under tomatoes and squash.

Milam ASCS

Report

March 4 is the final date for cotton producers to release 1963 cotton allotments and to request additional cotton acreage, according to Alva E. Sanders, office manager of the Milam County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Farmers who do not plan to plant all or plan to plant only a part of their 1963 cotton allotment are urged to file an application to release such acreage to the County Committee to make the acreage available to other farmers in the county.

A farmer who releases his unwanted acres can maintain history on his farm provided cotton is planted one out of three years. A farm must plant 75 percent of the allotment or acreage must be released; otherwise, the allotment will be reduced for 1964 provided cotton is not regarded as planted under provisions of the Soil Bank Act.

Farmers who wish to plant additional cotton acreage in 1963 should file a request at the ASCS office by the March 4 deadline.

A Gopher Control Demonstration will be conducted in the Gause community on Friday, February 22, 1963, at 1:30 p. m. The demonstration will be held on the John Washington farm in the Gause community on Highway 79. Since the gopher problem is common to the Gause community and other areas of the county, the public is invited to attend this affair and learn how to solve the gopher problem.

The demonstration will be conducted by Virgil V. Parsons, District Field Assistant with the Rodent Control Service. He will demonstrate the use of a new machine for putting out poison grain to control gophers.

1962 - 63 COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT CONTEST

The Community Improvement contest year is rapidly approaching its end. The contest closes March 31, 1963. Record books are due in District Office at Prairie View on April 1, 1963. A new judging procedure will be used in selecting two communities in the contest this year. The contest is divided into two divisions. Division I will consist of communities that are participating for the first, second, or third year and that have not been first place district winners. Division II will include communities that are in their fourth year of participation, or communities that have been first place district winners. All communities participating in the program should plan now and start working toward completion of record books.

Changes Noted In 1963 Feed Grain Program In Texas

COLLEGE STATION — Texas farmers are now nearing the midway point in the February 1 - March 22 sign-up dates for the 1963 Feed Grain Program. Though it is very similar to the 1962 program, Tom Aaron, extension grain marketing specialist, says changes have been made which could affect a farmer's decision on whether or not to participate.

He lists these significant changes. A direct price support payment of 18 cents per bushel on corn, 14 cents on barley and 29 cents per hundredweight on grain sorghum has been added.

This amount to be paid participating farmers on the normal yield of their seeded acreage. For the first time, a farmer receives this payment even if he feeds his grain. Secondly, rates of payment on diverted acres have been reduced to 20 percent of the value of a normal crop on the first 20 percent diverted and to 50 percent of the value on all or any part of the second 20 per cent diverted.

Thirdly, price support loans will be available to participating farmers on total yield this year instead of only normal yield as in the past. Fourthly, the grazing period for diverted acres has been set in advance. Diverted acres may be grazed until May 1 and again after November 1. Fifthly, after the sign-up period has ended on March 22, there can be no reduction in diversion without losing all price support benefits, Aaron said.

The change in compliance regulations makes it all the more important for a feed grain producer to make his decision before March 22 since he can change his intention until that date.

As an aid to farmers in determining the financial returns from participating or not in the program Aaron said county agents have budget forms available for doing the necessary figuring.

Rev. and Mrs. Weidon Harris and sons Roger and Steven were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pond.

Thorndale Approves Valuation Program For Schools There

The Thorndale School Board has contracted with the Southwestern Appraisal Co., of Dallas, to value property within the Thorndale Independent School District.

It is the same firm of valuation engineers represented in a series of information talks on valuation of Cameron Independent School District property.

The Thorndale Champion said the survey will begin about March 1 and continue through July. Every lot and parcel of land together with all the improvements will be measured, classified and valued in the Thorndale District. Inventories of merchandise and other personal property also will be appraised, the Champion story noted.

AUCTION REPORT

The Cameron Livestock Auction sold 367 cattle and 123 hogs in the sale last week. Also sold were seven sheep and a goat.

Rogers Planning Celebration Of 14th Texas PSW

ROGERS — Plans are underway in the Rogers Public Schools for the observance of the 14th annual Public Schools Week in Texas, according to B. F. Harbour, superintendent.

There will be only 4 days in this special week this year in Rogers, since the school system will dismiss school on Friday, March 8 for teachers to attend the District X Teachers Convention in Austin that day.

Teachers will proceed each day with regular teaching in order that parents and other school patrons may see the "every - day work" of the schools. Students in each room will register parents and show them around the room. Displays of regular classwork that has been done during the year will be shown visitors.

Wednesday is designated as "Grandparents Day" in Rogers, in order to encourage the older citizens to continue their interest in the work of the boys and girls.

Throughout the school system, language arts teachers will have their students write letters of special invitation to their parents, neighbors or relatives. This will be a class project in which each student will be graded.

The Rogers PTA will change the March meeting to March 4 in order to have the meeting during Public School Week, according to an announcement of Mrs. Floyd Fritts, president. After that meeting, there will be open house in classrooms in order that parents who cannot visit during the day will see their children's rooms and talk with their teachers.

Grunts & Groans Come From Stage

A lot of grunting and groaning can be heard from the stage of the Yoe Gym each day as the athletes go thru their isometric exercises.

This method of muscle development is fairly new in this area but goes on the old principal that a muscle can only develop so fast and to do this you must work that muscle or group of muscles to the maximum.

And this development program was one of the main reasons that the Cameron Booster Club gave the Athletic Department of Yoe High School the funds to build the set-up. The Vocational Agricultural students built the power rack in the school shop.

The boys go thru the 10 exercises in about 10 minutes. They started with six seconds on each exercise and have now worked up to nine seconds. Time starts on the word of a coach and ends on his whistle.

This muscle building program is considered better than the weight lifting program because it takes less time, is less dangerous and is less fatiguing to the body.

Because of these factors the system can be used by both men, women, boys and girls. The PE classes are also using this rig in their classes.

Many users of the system claim an increase of 5 per cent per week in their strength which would give a 100 per cent increase over 20 weeks.

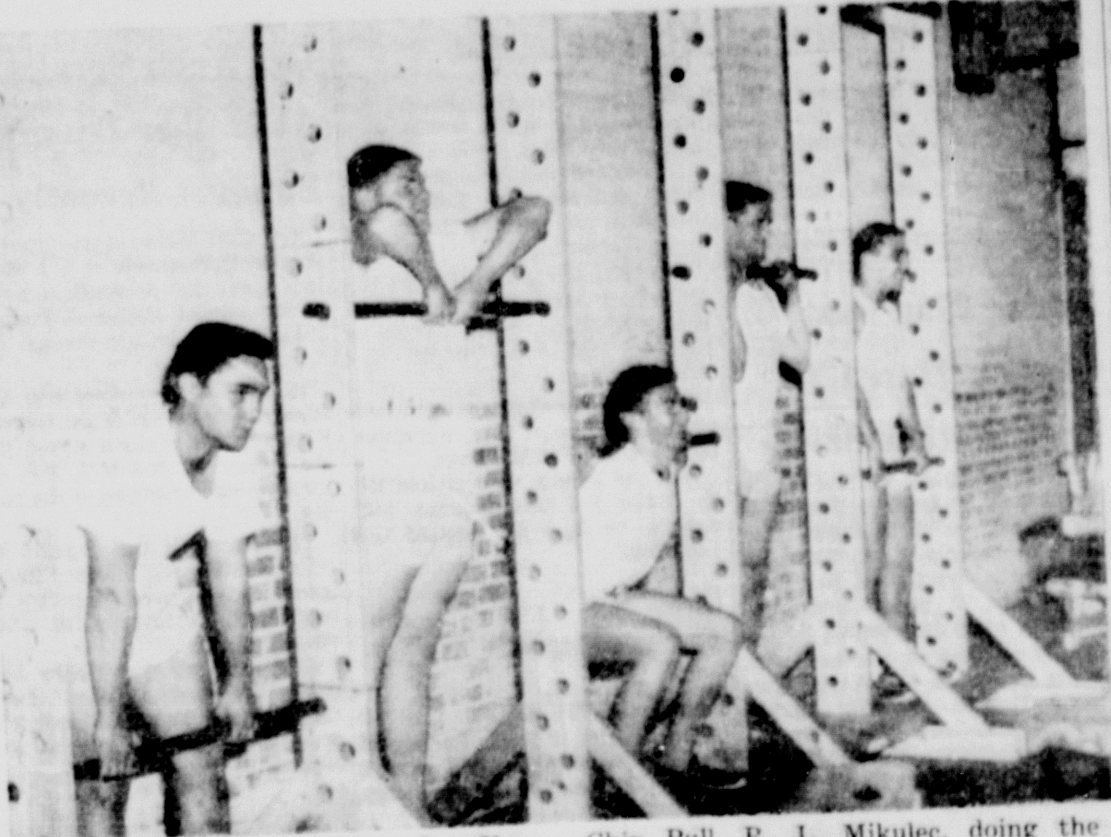

The exerting of force against an immovable object is similar to the body building courses offered by some magazines.

The boys themselves were tested with the barbells before they started with the isometric equipment and are checked every two weeks with the barbells to show the development.

The basic exercises used in the system are the warmup, pull, toe rise, shrug, press, squat, lift, chin pull, bench press and 1/4 squat. Each of these exercises work the same muscle groups as the weight program.

The future of this system looks good as colleges are using it to train their players.

The popular Rice Brainer Eddie Wojciek said that this conditioning system is the greatest thing since orange juice.

BUILDING BODIES - These five Yoe men demonstrate the new isometric power rack which was given to the school by the Cameron Booster Club. They are from left Clark Wohleb, doing the Lift, Mike Koranek doing the Chin Pull, R. L. Mikulec, doing the squat, Larry Pientl, doing the Press, and Craig Wallace doing the Pull. The device is also used by the P. E. Classes in the school. -- Stafffoto

Hunting season may be at a standstill in most of Texas but one game that is in open season is the signing of high school football players for Southwest Conference Schools.

Over 173 were signed up in the first week of the drive with Texas Tech leading in the signature race. Only two of the District 19AA players were named as having signed Monday.

Jay Don Watson, the big 6 foot, 206 pound tackle from Caldwell signed with Baylor.

Jimmy Swanson a 195 pound guard has signed with Rice at his Navasota home.

Both of these boys were all-district offensive and defensive on the coach selected team.

James Lucas of Rosebud has signed with the TCU Frogs. The 6'1", 202 pounder was all-district the last two years.

Thus far no other players from this area have announced signing with a SWC school.

Track season has started and the rain is keeping the runners off the track for a few days. So the coaches have lined up a bit of cross country running for the boys.

The team will have three meets in March. They will first go to the Cotton Bowl Relays on the 16th. Then to the Cameron Relays on the 23rd and the Rockdale Relays the 30th. Then the next Saturday is the District meet.

Banquet Thursday For Yoemen Team

The Cameron Council of the Knights of Columbus will honor the Yoe High School football players and coaches with an informal banquet Thursday at 7 p. m. in the K. C. Hall.

Local Bowlers Hold 4th Spot In Meet

Rockdale's Wanda Culp, Mary Gage and Lillie Ralston and Betty Backhaus held on to a slim fourth place tie in the Women's State Bowling meet as they dropped from first place in the Class D doubles.

All thru the week and weekends the ladies of the Cameron Bowling Association are trying for the prize money.

Thursday Doris Elliott, Marie Ann Laake, Gloria Neely, Della Moraw, Henrietta Tucker, Lillie Richter, Ann Schattle, Milady Hollas, Bobbie Perkins and Melma Meyer all have a chance at the doubles competition.

Saturday at 9 a. m. the Duncum Implement Company team under captain Ann Hollas will roll at Lake Air Lanes.

A Corps Of Questions About Idealism!

President Kennedy recommends establishment of some domestic equivalent to the Peace Corps, generally acknowledged at home and abroad as successful.

Anticipating some additional decline in employment and rising demands of juvenile delinquency, the President sees the need for federal efforts to curb these problems.

It appears to be a further step "to stateize" this nation.

The same kind of idealism which is carried abroad by young Peace Corpsmen to the wilderness reaches of struggling new nations has an important place at home. But Administration proposals suggest a great inadequacy of present institutions to sponsor the necessary spark.

We remember the CCC camps of the 1930's, bringing together tens of thousands of unemployed young men, victims of the Depression. They worked in the nation's forests and public lands because they had no where else to turn.

Do the economic conditions of the 1960's suggest the need for such programs? Are there enough depressed areas in the United States to justify "emissaries of idealism" sponsored by the federal taxpayer? Is there not enough motivation in the local church and government institutions to deal with these local problems?

Washington thinks not.

The success of the Peace Corps abroad arises from a great need for basic development in basic work: farming, home building, sanitation, teaching. These are the professions and crafts being taught by U. S. Peace Corpsmen.

Would it not be duplication to qualify domestic Corpsmen for much the same purpose in a nation that has depressed areas, but which also has basic schools, services and facilities already established?

Is it not fact that Peace Corpsmen are already being sought for employment by private industry? And that expansion of this program to domestic areas would in fact be subsidizing industry, which draws workers from the rural areas and by competition creates depressed areas?

Would it not be better to urge co-operation of established institutions, government agencies and business for broadened scope in local schools and on-the-job training in these institutions?

Can't we feed new life into these areas without ultimate shifting of responsibility to bureaucratic Washington?

These questions, we believe, are answerable at the local level. If the citizenry cannot respond to these problems in the hope of concluding some of them, then federally sponsored idealism has little hope of arousing a response.

The pattern of history since World War II has been an endless succession of federal responses to all kinds of problems. The yet unanswered problem has been one of cutting off the hand (in essence our own) that feeds us when we are overstuffed.

THE OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Amazed To Learn Government Requires Some Business To Make A Profit

Dear editor: I haven't paid too much attention to Congress' struggle to change the tax laws this year, figuring it would take its time and anyway what it has done is not as bad as what it could do.

But I read an article last night that has bowled me over and I'm coming out for some immediate changes. According to it, a Texas millionaire who owns a professional football team at Dallas has been satisfied to let the team lose an enormous amount of money for the past three years, just taking it off his income tax. But under an Internal Revenue Service law, he has only one more year to go, and if the team doesn't show a profit, he has to call it a hobby and go back and pay the taxes written off as losses the last three years.

This is a serious matter. You mean to say if I lose money four years in a row on this Johnson grass farm the government will call my farming a hobby and make me go back and pay income taxes on something I didn't make? Say I lost money four years in a row raising cotton, you mean to say that the government could claim I was raising cotton as a hobby?

This is the first time I ever knew there was a law requiring a man to make a profit. If enforcement of this thing spreads, it'll throw agriculture into a tailspin, not to say the penitentiary.

You set out to tell a farmer he has to make a profit or be taxed for his losses and the bottom will fall out of agriculture.

In the mean time, while Congress is getting around to changing this rule, the least Washington can do is to double my government checks just to keep me inside the law. I'll go along with such an arrangement and Congress can take its time on the other part.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Gov.'s Mansion 'In Bad Shape'

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — According to a description given the House Appropriations Committee relative to the governor's mansion, it's in bad shape. Howard Rose, executive assistant to Gov. John Connally, says:

"On the north side, the mansion is settling so much, there is a gap of several inches between the floor and the bottom of the front door." He added: "There are cracks in the wall and ceiling; a good deal of furniture needs re-stuffing; and the stove won't work right four days in a row."

"Also," says Rose, "we have only one coffee table in the house. If you don't want to hold your coffee cup, you either put it on the floor or balance it on your knee. In the Green Room, there are no pictures. And we don't have eight complete sets of silver."

This prompted Appropriations Committee Chairman Bill Healy of Paducah to comment: "I know we've spent between $100,000 and $125,000 on the mansion in the last six years."

Governor Connally has not requested any money for major repairs. He is asking for $32,872 for each of the next two years to operate the mansion, including $5,000 for utilities; $1,500 for telephone expenses; and $2,200 for other supplies.

DELEGATIONS ORGANIZE
Texas' two largest delegations in the 88th Legislature have organized for the purpose of working closely together "for better representation" of their regions.

An 80-member East Texas delegation elected Rep. John Allen of Longview as chairman.

About 30 west Texas legislators chose Rep. Richard C. Slack of Pecos as their leader.

COURT SHUFFLE PROPOSED

Rep. Henry Stollenwerk, young attorney from Dallas, appears to be the most active of the seven republican members of the house.

He is an aggressive participant in the five committee's he's assigned to, and has co-sponsored several bills by democrats. Stollenwerk feels he's been able to take an active part without defecting from the republican political philosophy to which he adheres.

After Governor Connally chided republican legislators for "obstructionism," Stollenwerk said, "The boys joke with me about what the governor said, and I just joke back and say I would be awfully disappointed if I thought he was talking about me."

He is author of a bill to move 12 district courts from places where filings and caseloads are meager, to more-populated locations with heavy caseloads.

District courts in this state have not been reapportioned since 1907. Several bills have been introduced by big-city legislators who claim their towns need additional courts.

Stollenwerk said some East and Central Texas courts he proposes to move had only 150 filings in 1961, compared to 1,500 filings in many other district courts.

GAME-FISH MERGER TOPIC

Rep. James Cotten's bill to merge the Game and Fish Commission with the State Parks Board — originally proposed by Governor Connally and the Legislative Budget Board — hasn't come out of committee yet. It's a most controversial subject.

Legislators are beginning to feel pressure from all directions. The South Texas Chamber of Commerce sent them copies of a resolution opposing the merger. Then the Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas issued a statement in favor of the plan.

If the Weatherford representative's bill passes, some of the six members of the Parks Board and nine members of the Game and Fish Commission will lose their posts, since the composite commission would be limited to three members. So some legislators are torn between loyalty to local appointees and a desire to "streamline" state government.

BUDGET TRIMMED

Meanwhile, the current Game and Fish Commission ran into trouble with the Legislative Budget Board. Commission's executive secretary, Howard Dodgen, requested that during 1963 it be allowed to spend the $9,199,000 it will have available.

But the budget board recommended a biennial appropriation of $3,662,000 less than the agency requested.

POISON'S DANGERS CITED

Dr. Irwin L. Sawyer Jr. of San Antonio, director of the State Veterinary Medicine Association, appeared before the House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence in favor of a bill by Rep. Howard Green, Fort Worth, to banish thallium pesticides from the market.

Dr. Sawyer described thallium as a heavy metal, which is colorless, odorless and tasteless in sulfate form.

"When mixed, thallium merely waits for a rat, a man, a child or a pet, he stated.

One reason it's so dangerous is that reaction to its poison may be delayed as long as 48 hours. Then it's too late for an antidote. "It's even hard to detect in post-mortem examination," said Sawyer.

FARMER LIABILITY LAW

Rep. W. T. Dungan of McKinney ran into some sharp questioning when he brought his bill before the House Judiciary Committee. Proposed bill would exempt farmers and ranchers from liability damage suits filed by injured sportsmen.

"The hunter pays the farmer to go on his land," Rep. W. H. Miller of Houston remarked. "That puts the farmer in business. Why not exempt the theatre owner from damage suits filed by patrons who slip on popcorn sacks?"

After several similar remarks, Dungan allowed that the wording of the bill might be improved. But he insisted that such a law would encourage more farmers and ranchers to open their lands to sportsmen.

DEFICIT DOWN

Deficit in the State General Revenue Fund was reduced in some two weeks from more than $50,000,000 to $35,401,125, according to a report by State Treasurer Jesse James.

Sharp drop was due to quarterly payments on the state's two per cent sales tax.

CRIME SPIRALS UPWARD

Texas' increase in major crimes during 1962 outstripped the population increase, according to Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety.

Colonel Garrison said an offense was committed on the average of one every two and one-half minutes last year. Crime jumped 6.6 per cent over the 1961 total.

Largest increase by population groups was 14.7 per cent in cities between 50,000 and 100,000. Largest decrease was 15.5 per cent in counties with less than five people per square rural mile.

APPOINTMENTS

Will Bond of Hillsboro was reappointed by Governor Connally to a six-year term on the board of the State Department of Public Welfare. Bond's term was thus extended to January 20, 1969.

Hunter McLean of Fort Worth, newly appointed member of the State Board of Insurance, was sworn in by Associate Justice Frank P. Culver Jr. of the State Supreme Court in Senate chamber ceremonies. McLean succeeds Dr. Joseph F. Trosper of Dallas whose term ended on January 31.

PENSIONS PROPOSED

A bill to provide retirement pensions ranging from $100 to $300 a month for elected state officials has been introduced in the House.

Reps. George T. Hinson of Minersville and Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs are the authors.

Hinson said their bill would pension the governor, lieutenant governor, state treasurer, state comptroller, land commissioner, agriculture commissioner, attorney general and members of the Railroad Commission.

WRATH OF LADIES

Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin says he is misunderstood by the ladies.

He voted against the "equal legal rights" amendment passed by the Senate.

"I knew I was going to catch it from the women," Dies said. "I wish they could see that I'm not against women's rights."

Dies' quarrel is with the constitutional revision route taken by a Senate majority. He believes statutes operating against women in the management and control of property and other matters should be repealed selectively, without disturbing laws that give women needed protection.

TOURISM PUSHED

Texas business leaders are urging the Legislature to invest State money in tourism in order to get back millions in new revenue.

They estimate a return of $7,500,000 in direct taxes for an initial outlay of $250,000. That is the sum proposed for a new Texas Tourist Development Agency.

CARE FOR NEEDY

Rep. Will L. Smith of Beaumont has introduced a bill to provide medical care of the needy, totally and permanently disabled persons not covered by the current program.

Smith says nearly 8,000 persons now benefit from the state needy disabled program.

LOAN FUND URGED

A state bond issue of $200,000,000 has been recommended by the Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee.

Purpose is to create a self-financing industrial development loan fund.

Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin sponsor of the amendment, says it is "a must" to enable the state to induce new industries to come to Texas and existing ones to expand.

FOR PRESERVATION

Reps. Stanley Boyesen of Yoakum and John E. Blaine of El Paso have introduced a series of bills authorizing the state, cities and counties to select and protect historic, archaeological and paleontological sites.

One bill would permit local taxes to be spent for the purpose. Two other prescribe fines for destroying or defacing places marked for preservation.

On the state level, the Historical Survey Committee would advise the State Building Commission which structures and sites should be preserved.

IRS Aid Assures No Guarantee On Tax Form Audit

Taxpayers were reminded today by A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of the Internal Revenue Service, Temple, that preparation of their 1962 tax forms by IRS personnel, or aid in preparing them, doesn't mean that the returns won't be audited later.

"Some taxpayers," the IRS representative said, "believe that returns prepared in our office are finished and that they need have no further concern with them. This is not so. IRS employees assisting taxpayers in preparation of tax returns are only following the information provided by taxpayers."

"If later examination reveals inaccuracy, the taxpayer will have to explain and account for the doubtful entries."

He urged each taxpayer to "attempt preparation of his own return."

HOW TELEPHONES USED TO LOOK?

Every old telephone here was once the last word in service. But times and telephones change.

Remember when phones needed fixing so often that each one had a door on the front for the repairman's convenience? Today's telephones give many years of trouble-free service.

Remember when you had to talk loud to be heard? Today you can talk on the phone as if the person were sitting next to you.

Remember when technology limited telephones to one color and one model? Today you can have colors and models to suit your own good taste.

Continued development of better styling and engineering of telephones is another improvement made with you in mind. Our never-ending goal is to improve your telephone service and make it more valuable to you.

Optional Tax Method For Farm Earnings

Some self-employed farmers may be entitled to use an optional method for figuring their net earnings from the farm for social security credit. Durelle L. Allen, district manager of the Temple Social Security Office, and A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of the Internal Revenue Service in Temple, reminded farm operators today.

Andrews pointed out that:

(1) If your gross income from agricultural self-employment is not more than $1800, you may count as your net farm earnings either your actual net or 2-3 of your farm gross income;

(2) If your gross farm income is more than $1800 and your net farm earnings are less than $1200, you may use either your actual net or $1200.

(3) If your gross farm income is more than $1800 and your net farm earnings are $1200 or more, you must use the actual amount of your net earnings.

Allen added that use of the option enables farmers with gross income as low as $600 to obtain social security protection for themselves in their old age, and if they become disabled before that time, and for their survivors in the event of untimely death. He emphasized, however, that regardless of the way in which you figure your net earnings, you must have net earnings of at least $400 (from farming alone, or in combination with other self-employment earnings) to get social security credit for the year.

"THAT IS FOR THE BIRDS"

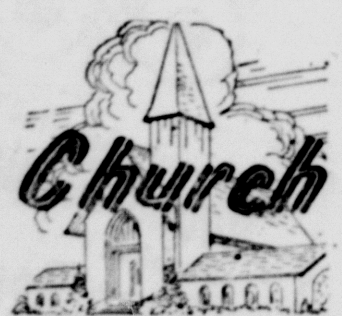

The above heading is a popular, prevalent expression used these days to indicate that some practice or action is "flighty", silly, queer, or that a person in some act is mentally "off."

The expression is a bit unfair to the birds, for they do practice a way of life that all human kind would do well to emulate. The birds live joyously day by day. In spite or reverses, tragedies, good weather or bad, they live happily and they show it by bursting into song.

Regularly attending a church of one's choosing is a key that will unlock joyous living. The lives of many who attend, some despite afflictions, pain and reverses is testimony to this. Through the inspiration of the Church service, the quiet setting that inspires thought and the association with those whose lives are a joy is evidence that this "true way" of life can be yours. It is not "just for the birds."
